

The Rt Hon the Lord Astor of Haver PC DL
Soldiering On Through Life Trust

The Soldiering On Awards not only enable us to publicly repay a great debt of gratitude to Servicemen, women and Reservists, their families and those who support them. They also keep front of mind the strong bond between the Services and civilian life. They highlight how we can learn from each other, as we continue to work together for many years to come for the good of society as a whole. We look forward to receiving your nominations and seeing you on Awards night.

General the Lord Dannatt GCB, CBE, MC, DL

It is my privilege to again chair the Soldiering On Awards Panel of Judges in 2016. This is a unique opportunity to celebrate both individuals and organisations. Please consider nominating those in our community who deserve our recognition and thanks.

Lieutenant General Sir Andrew Ridgway KBE CB,
Chairman Cobseo

As Chairman of Cobseo, I see on a daily basis the support offered by our member organisations to our Servicemen and women, to our Veterans and to our families. These awards enable us to publicly pay tribute to the remarkable achievements across the whole of the Armed Forces Community.

Wing Commander Tal Lambert MBE,
Chairman Soldiering On Through Life Trust

Now into our 7th year, the Soldiering On Awards has recognised many truly inspirational, often unsung, heroes, demonstrating the important role our Servicemen and women and the Armed Forces Community that supports them play. The mind set of 'soldiering on' is an example in all walks of life. On behalf of the Trustees, I invite you to put forward your nominations and join us in recognising all of those who demonstrate the spirit of Soldiering On.
